ance, it is the duty of the Committee to be provided with certain statements and resolutions upon which discussion may ensue. It is their duty to say in effect "Your Committee have arrived at such and such a view, and propose so, and so. Those who differ from the views expressed or course proposed have a present opportunity of setting forth their own opinions," and the discussion would then assume a practical form. What, for instance, could be more absurd than the recent meeting about the opening of new ports when the "public" were invited to speak. It resulted in the meeting terminating exactly where it should have begun, the Committee being requested to draw up a despatch and unless another public meeting be held, there is every probability of a document which embodies neither the opinion of the Chamber or that of the outside public being forwarded to H. M. Consul as an emanation from the united wisdom of the Chamber in particular, and Hongkong at large generally! We have some hopes that under Mr Bryan's leadership some order and reformation may be introduced. Even the Chetco Chamber, which we believe consists, or consisted, of a chairman, secretary and two members, gets more attention paid to its "memoirs" than does that of Hongkong. Can or will the new chairman rescue the latter from its fallen position?

LOCAL.

A SALE of horses and carriages took place yesterday afternoon on the Parade Ground, but there were few, if any bidders, and most of the animals were bought in. Snow-don, a racing pony, from the Shanghai stable, was first put up at the reserve bid of $500, but no one was a "peg" higher, so he was sold off. Gladstone, a dun-coloured pony, from the same stable, was sold cheap, to Messrs. Arnold, Karberg and Co., for $25, after some competition. High-top, a great grey horse, was run up to $500, but not sold. After these three some of the veritable "Colonial Scrubs" were led up, but one or two only found purchasers. Then followed some police "horses," but the only bid we heard was a "two-cent stamp," for a homely-looking brute, who appeared in the most despondent state. A number of carriages were offered for sale, but a few only were knocked down to genuine purchasers.—Press.

TO-NIGHT'S POLICE.

Before Mr. May, six men were brought by Inspector Horspool, and charged by that officer as suspicious characters. They were apprehended by the Inspector at 1 o'clock this morning, in a house in Ship Street, Yanchi (a known bad locality); but it appears that Mr Horspool, while the occupants were reluctantly opening the door from the inside, pushed in the door. The action was taken on the strength of information from Mr D. R. Caldwell, and the house in question was pointed out by the Gambling Farmer's informant. In the house were found the six prisoners, of whom is a branded man, who was deported in June last. He has no warrant.—His Worship said that he had already spoken to inspectors of the care with which such service as midnight arrests should be made. Unarmed with any warrant or any authority to break open the doors of apparently peaceable citizens, inspectors, by doing so without such authority deprived themselves of that protection which the law readily gave in such matters. Had resistance been made in the present case, the Inspector would have no redress whatever, as he was doing wrong. Were he in the position of inspector he would always be very cautious of breaking in doors; he would rather by means of a ladder get into the house by a window. Now that these men were brought before him, he really did not know what to do with them.—The Inspector reminded His Worship that one was a branded man.—This the Magistrate admitted, but stated that, for all that appeared to the contrary, the others were peaceable citizens; one was a military store coolie. He would not be much astonished if there were some actions for false imprisonment soon.—The Inspector said he did not think that respectable men would be with a known branded criminal, and it was clear enough that they were harboring a deported man. Cases of the same kind had been brought up before and decided by Mr Goodlake.—Mr May asked the Inspector to show the Ordinance which provided the punishment of persons harboring branded men.—The Inspector replied that he could not point out the Ordinance, but he was certain that such cases had been dealt with by Mr Goodlake.—Mr Douglas, Gaol Superintendent, here proved that first prisoner had been branded and deported in June last; to which his Worship remarked that first prisoner was the same man who was deported in June last.—In reply to the Court, Inspector Horspool said that he was of opinion that three of the prisoners were sleeping in the same room with the branded man; and further that the prisoners were heard to say that there was only one marked man, and that they therefore could not see why they were all apprehended.—Mr D. R. Caldwell, in reply to the Court, stated that his men had been after a branded man in Wanchi for two days.—Prisoners who were not branded stated that they did not know that first prisoner was a marked and deported man; and the first prisoner himself said that he had come to the Colony only a day or two, thinking that a day or two would not make much difference; he was not well prepared to be caught so soon after coming to the place.—His Worship informed the branded man that he had been deported on certain conditions, which would now be entirely done away with by his return to the Colony. His previous sentences would now be carried out. The other prisoners were fortunate that no clear proof of their connection with the first prisoner had been forthcoming. He would now discharge them; but they would recollect that they placed themselves in a very dangerous position by associating with branded men. Five prisoners were then discharged accordingly; and the branded man was removed to Gaol.

Peter Jensen, seaman on board the ship Douglas (who has been in Hospital for some time), summoned a Captain Morrison of the said vessel, inasmuch as he had not returned a watch and other articles to defendant when required to do so. The complainant admitted that he had never asked for the articles named in the summons; and as Captain Morrison had handed them into Court, the cause of action was consequently at an end, it in truth, it had ever commenced. The Captain explained (as did also Jensen himself) that the watch had been given into his custody on an advance of $18; and the watch he promised to return to Jensen, if he carried out his articles and returned in the ship to California.—The case was therefore dismissed.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

HIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treatment.
